

Justin Guarini, One Heart Too Many

lover, its an endless life and i'm alone with these regrets of hurting you never, thought i'd be misled and turned away from all those dreams that we once knew it was one heart too many tasted love sweet that sunny but the lie- playin with my mind turn my back on emotions like they were drops in the ocean wasted time, just caught up in the lie somewhere, deep inside i feel only time can heal a lonely need in me, oh someday(someday), somehow (somehow) we're gonna find our way so dance with me again and just forgive it away

but the lie- playin with my mind (oh no)
turn my back on emotions

everyday away from you tears could fill an ocean blue deeper waters take me to an emptyness inside i dont wanna drown again take me from a loveless end come on baby reach on in You gotta rescue me

Oh,oh,oh,oh,oh,oh

It was one heart too many tasted love sweet as sunny but the lie, kept playin with my mind
turn my back on emotions
like they were drops in the ocean
wasted time, just caught up in the lie
