

Justin Guarini, Thinking Of You

Look in my eyes
I know you see the love inside me
I know that you're scared
But I'm not gonna hurt you baby
Just gimme your hand
(Gimme your hand)
I'll show you love that's never ending
We will fly away
And never look back again
No no

I wanna take you away
I gotta little house where we can stay
I wanna make you my own
If you don't try you'll never know
Cause I could be the love of your life
Until you make up your mind
I'm gonna spend my time thinkin' of you yeah

You don't have to hide baby
(Don't hide baby)
Cause I will be your protector
Let's take a ride
(Let's take a ride)
On a trip that's gonna last forever
I'm positive this will work
(It's gonna work)
You're smilin' cause you know you feel it too baby
(Baby yeah)
All I ever wanted was you

I wanna take you away
(Take you away baby)
I gotta little house where we can stay
(Oh yeah)
I wanna make you my own
If you don't try you'll never know
(Never know)
Cause I could be the love of your life
(I could be the love of your life)
Until you make up your mind
I'm gonna spend my time thinkin' of you yeah

Let's take a chance baby
What have we got to lose
I will show the world that I'm the best for you
You will see my love ... I'll take you where you never been
All you gotta do is say yes and make me your man
Your man

I wanna take you away
I gotta little house where we can stay
(A house where we can stay baby yeah)
I wanna make you my own
If you don't try you'll never know
(If you don't try you'll never know)
Cause I could be the love of your life
(Cause I could be the love of your life)
Until you make up your mind
I'm gonna spend my time thinkin' of you yeah

Wanna make you my own
Yeahh
Take you away baby
