Justin Hayward, Take Your Chances

The secret that you keep Is hidden way down deep I see it in the window of your soul I hear it in your voice I feel it in your touch The love that's in your heart you can control So take your chances Let's not pretend Cause we may never Pass this way again The pleasures of the night The darkness and the light It's hard to see the writing on the wall I hear it in your voice I feel it in your touch I see it through the window of your soul So take your chances Let's not pretend Cause we may never Pass this way again
