

Justin Nozuka, If I Gave You My Life

I fell in love with a voice in the midnight air
Gliding across the room she was studying me
Such a simple thing to do
The touch of her hand
A question

(Chorus)
If I gave you my life would you let it slip
Through your fingers like water in the dessert
If I gave you my heart
In the deep of the night
Would you hold it like a candle giving you light

Days fell away into years
Sunset memories

Standing on the edge of it all oh she was worrying me
Such a typical thing to do
The reach of her hand
Connection

(Chorus)

Life fell away from her voice in the midnight air
Hey
Lying on the moonlit ground she was looking up at me
Such a simple thing to do
Just as simple as the way she fades away

(Chorus)
