

Justin Nozuka, Mr Therapy Man

Through the water
And through the flames
My baby left me without a trace
She took my money
And left the ring
And she didn't leave one clue of where she was going to Oh my baby up and left me alone
She signed goodbye on the letter that she wrote
Oh my baby up and left me now
Mr. Therapy man I need to ask you how can I live on How could she do it
Go break my heart when
She used to be the one crying when we were apart
I gave her all of me,
Gave her my soul
and that was exactly what she stole from me
