

Justin Stein, Sweetest Girl

You a little shy and I wonder why It's like you've never been kissed before seeing you around walk'in off the ground It's like an angel at the door.
And I dont need to tell you what to do so I wont, I just wanna be with you can't tell me that you don't.
Never break your heart I knew from the start it's like our love was meant to be much I want to say every single day I guarentee you and I will find a peice of mind, it's a tie there's no way I got to be why don't you kiss me (chorus)
You are the sweetest girl what can I do to make you mine travel across the world and i'll be there every time so when you need a friend i'll be there till the end i'll never leave you here alone (leave you here alone) sweetest girl that I have ever known Baby can't you see you belong to me girl you know i'll treat you rite side by side we'll stand, walking hand and hand i'll hold you through the night and if anyone would try and steal you why they couldnt start, safe you'll be kept in the depest depths of my heart I'll give you some time to make up your mind on which way you'll go girl were a perfect fit, baby dont you know im fall'in fast but time has past I feel the ground and im' sure there is a cure having you around (chorus)2x
You are the sweetest girl
