

Justin Timberlake, No Angels

All we need is one moment or two
Just a little more time, a little unwinding
Got fun on my mind, and I've chosen you
'Cause you're looking like gas and I'm looking for mileage

Ooh-oh, you got that something new, that sexy attitude
I never seen it quite like that, you fit that, like, ooh
And I already knew
By just one look at you
I'm gonna find out before the night's out

All the good girls
There's a playground that I know where we all could play
Love it when it gets like this
Don't stop, it's your world
Go ahead and tuck all your wings away
Love it when you push it like

Full throttle
Pilot on "Auto"
There ain't no angels here on the dance floor
Forget tomorrow
Move like you wanna, babe
There ain't no angels here on the dance floor

All we need is one moment or two
I been taking my time, but it's all about timing
'Cause when those hips do what they really wanna do
Got me losing my mind
I ain't trying to hide it, can't hide it, no

You got that something new, that sexy attitude
I never seen it quite like that, you fit that, like, ooh
And I already knew
By just one look at you
I'm gonna find out before the night's out

All we need is one moment or two
Got fun on my mind, and I've chosen you
