

Justincase, Always Gone

I hope so bad that you were just waiting and i hope so bad, not too much, hold the phone you need someone waiting to give you an extra hand one more time, yea
you were always out of reach
you were always gone
and im always out of sync
well its all gone wrong the extra step that you dont want to take could be the step that breaks my fall, breaks my back the times that you smile dont fool me except one time
that you made me believe it
you were always out of reach
and i always thought that you would be,
leavin' tomorrow
and i always thought that you would be,
leavin' tomorrow
and now i do know that you will be,
leavin' tomorrow
