

Justincase, Be Me

When I step to stardom will you lose your touch
When veins are open and filled with the answer
Can you find the rent that will do you in
The drug that feeds you will starve you in the end

[Chorus:]

Wouldn't you love to see me now
Wouldn't you love to be me
So now you're perfect with the things you smoke
Steps become weaker but it feels nice

[Chorus]

Take your breath away
Take your pride away
and move it to another dimension
Take your breath away
Take your pride away
And move it

[Chorus x2]
