

Justincase, Owe

"I think I owe an apology to thinking you were a part of me I guess thats the worst part of me I dont know where I ought to be with you...

Please forgive me for all the mess that lingers under my consciousness keeps me hangin on every breath cuz i dont think i could handle this and you...

(chorus)

If i owe you one last word its a lie
its a lie yeah yeah
somewhere i got lost inside of your eyes and I die yeah yeah...

If i was wrong from the start of this for giving you such a part of me there's one thing that I must confess I know I never could pretend
with you...

Chorus

If i owe you one last word its a lie
its a lie yeah yeah

Its a lie its a lie

Chorus (x2)
