

Justincase, Without You (Featuring Michelle Branch)

It's been two weeks and three days long
I'm all alone since you've been gone
I can't keep myself from asking why
Just wanna see my reflection in your eyes

Just know that I'm with you
And what you feel, I feel it too

[Chorus]
I'm feeling lately
I'm going crazy
Wondering how I'll go on without you
I keep on trying
Slowly dying
Thinking of how I need you here with me

I wear your shirt, the scent of you
Reminds me of the night when we became two There's nothing else that feels the same
Everyday there's sun, it feels just like rain

Just know that I'm with you
And what you feel, I feel it too

repeat chorus

If you think it's easy for me
Well you're wrong
Sometimes I'm weak and baby you know
I'm not that strong

You're in New York and I'm in L.A.
There's so much to tell you, words I need to say
But your phone keeps ringing, ringing, ringing,

repeat chorus

It's been two weeks and three days long
I'm all alone since you've been gone
