

Justine&Sonia, Why?

I wake up and breathe, I remember, I
See on you this stone
I miss you I come to see, and think,, I
Light candle, I
Tell to You, I
Think that you hear me,
Every day lets never.
I wake up and breathe,
You sleep and I do not feel Your breath,
How come do, it had to be so?
How come does all have to end?
I come and light candle, I
See on You this stone...
Every summer day...
I miss you and I come to you, I
think and remember,
Every summer day
When I see on You this stone,
Every day,
I miss you for You, you will Become in my heart there
When we in end will meet,.
I wake up and breathe,
You sleep and I do not feel Your breath,
How come do, it had to be so?
How come does all have to end?
I come and light candle, I
See on You this stone...
Every summer day...2x
