

Juvenile, Addicted

(feat. Brian McKnight)

[Juvenile]

This is brought to you courtesy of Brian McKnight

[Brian McKnight]

This isn't love, you're just addicted to what the dick did

Yes you are, baby

I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart

Well well well

This isn't love, you're just addicted to what the dick did

Mmm mmm mmmm

I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin' your heart

Go on and tell 'em about it J, tell 'em about it J

[Juvenile]

Now when we first met I told you, it was a you thang, and it's a me thang

Whatever's goin on in your life I don't have nuttin to do with that

You go ahead on and do what you do, y'knahmsayin?

And whatever's goin on in my life

I'ma let that happen the way it's been happenin'

Don't change what's goin on, y'knahmsayin?

And when we fuck, that ain't got nuttin to do with the rest of the world

You don't call me, I ain't gon' call you

When we hook up, we just hook up, but OH NO

You wan' take it all out of context, and you know what this really is

You know what the situation is, why you doin that?

[Chorus: Brian McKnight w/ ad libs]

This isn't love, you're just addicted to what the dick did

I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin your heart

This isn't love, you're just addicted to what the dick did

I made a big mistake and now you say I'm breakin your heart

[Juvenile]

Now here we go again

You're scratchin up my car, you're bustin up all my windows

You're callin my house, callin my cell phone

I shouldn'ta never gave you my number anyway

But I thought you was my friend!

I thought me and you was bigger than that, y'knahmsayin?

But you done lost all that

You might as well just lose my number and lose conversation from me, y'knahmsayin?

When you see me in public, don't say nuttin to me no mo'

Cause you tryin to wreck my life

And you know I got a lot goin on in my life right now

I got responsibilities, you understand?

[Chorus]

[Juvenile]

So what you got my name tattooed on yo' body?

I ain't tell you to go do that!

You watchin MTV and BET, that's what you want

You got a lil' piece of that and you don't know how to act

You goin crazy!

You better get your mind together because you know what this is

[Chorus - repeat to fade]
