

K Koke, My Time (feat. Bridget Kelly)

And I swear the stars are falling faster than they ever did
And the sun is burning harder than it has before
And the moon is closer to my reach than it has ever been
My time is coming, my time is coming

And the night time plays the sweetest tune you'll ever hear
A melody that brings me to my knees
And the wind is wild and knocks me down to whisper in my ear
Your time is coming, my time is coming

Whoever would've thought I could achieve this
But my teachers didn't, middle fingers when I see miss
58 longlents Stonebridge Estate
I was on the blocks posting for most of my days
Sizzla, Conroy, Wales and The Mandem
Beating off the wall making rhythms with our handem
Running from the law tryna push away the hand ting
Distributing raw cause being poor ain't worth a damn thing
But stay bizzy is the anthem
I'm tryna buy mummy's house, push her in a mansion
Sweet 16 for my pretty little tantrum
My dreams turn real and they put me in handcuffs
Handcuffs, and ever since I've been banged up
Life's been a roller coaster mad stuff
Life on the road kept me held up anchor
It's like I can't float in my boat since my plan

And I swear the stars are falling faster than they ever did
And the sun is burning harder than it has before
And the moon is closer to my reach than it has ever been
My time is coming, my time is coming

It was all a dream, now they got me up in dat magazine
From the block to the rock no skatty fiends
When my mix tape dropped I had the f'ing streets
Now I get paid gwop to write a fresh piece
I made sutin outta nuttin coming from the bottom
Where we gotta get it poppin
It really ain't a problem if to do is your only option
I really ain't discussing what we do to get the doe in Go in, go in, gotta keep going
I gotta leave poverty and everybody knows it
I gotta c property I gotta keep it rollin
But nottin like Monopoly I gotta really own it
Feeling like B.I. buzzing like a bee hive
Looking like money every time the honeys see I
Livin life bummy it ain't for me no rewind
Gee I be till they R I P

And I swear the stars are falling faster than they ever did
And the sun is burning harder than it has before
And the moon is closer to my reach than it has ever been
My time is coming, my time is coming

And the night time plays the sweetest tune you'll ever hear
A melody that brings me to my knees
And the wind is wild and knocks me down to whisper in my ear
Your time is coming, my time is coming
