I thought together would toughen the leather and never pull put the pleasure under pressure but it seems all that glitters is gold baby you sold your soul for the golden goose but the truth is aslong as i keep rhymin' eyes keep shining soul stays divine I remember '96 we used to dance i had two pairs of pants but you had that glance yo we used to hang out in the park and juct chill now we swing swords in the dark and act ill doesn't really matter i got to go peace the maistros that rock fo sho we did it

Verse 2:

Guess whos back but never left it all with a brand new pencil and a crystal ball let it fall sometime break down the wall you can't give what you have to recieve it all its the truth
full proof
but fools need proof so I slide to the side and I act uncool But its just an act cause i might react to those who never held a mic that fed back listen its just a day in the life of a man living in the dark on headlights wake up to dealin village raised the villan I wirtle raps well I watch myself on the ceiling 4321 its a countdown
I roll like a laser through the downtown mind over matter you tame the glow piece the metric LJ (era) oooh..

Chorus:

4 3 2 1 what were fighting for 3 2 1
I don't know what for 3 2 1
what were fighting for 3 2 1 i don't know what for, for, for,
what fooor..

what for what for what for

what fooor..
