

K-Otic, Cryin'

If I never get to do things my way,
You will never get to know me more than this,
When I can't live out my life.
It's almost like you want me to loose,
Everything I am and want to be,
You're okay, but it's just not me.
Then she says, &quot;Don't waste my time.&quot;
When in fact she's wasting mine.
I don't like your cryin',
When you say you understand.
I bet you're lyin',
It's like I see it in your eyes.
'cause everytime I'm on a roll,
You turn me down.
Now I'm the one who's cryin',
You are always in my way,
When I am tryin',
Oh, you make me weak.
Now I am feeling like a plane without wings,
I'm standing on the runway, want to fly the skies,
I have never flown before.
I know you think you stand beside me,
The thing is that you don't help out at all,
No, no,
You make things up.
Then she says, &quot;Don't waste my time.&quot;
When in fact she's wasting mine.
I don't like your cryin',
When you say you understand.
I bet you're lyin',
It's like I see it in your eyes.
'cause everytime I'm on a roll,
You turn me down.
Now I'm the one who's cryin',
You are always in my way,
When I am tryin',
Oh, you make me weak.
If you look inside,
You'll find the answers why I do the
Things you just can't fight, do right.
I will never hide,
Never satisfied until you see me as the saint I am.
I don't like your cryin',
Quit your denyin'.
I don't like your cryin',
When you say you understand.
I bet you're lyin',
It's like I see it in your eyes.
'cause everytime I'm on a roll,
You turn me down.
Now I'm the one who's cryin',
When you say you understand.
I bet you're lyin',
It's like I see it in your eyes.
'cause everytime I'm on a roll,
You turn me down.
Now I'm the one who's cryin',
You are always in my way,
When i am tryin',
Oh, you make me weak.
