

K's Choice, Paradise In Me

Consuming far too much Ignoring the will to touch the ones who don't have food at all...

I'm breathing
I'm wondering how we watch Wheel of Fortune now I close my eyes and try to see a piece of paradise in me

Beat me up and smash my brand new TV to help me look for a little piece of paradise in me

I'm dancing, I'm writing songs about what bothers me the most about those who can't dance at all...

I'm only jumping
I'm only freaking out and I wonder what it's all about to close my eyes and finally see a piece of paradise in me

a little piece of paradise in me
