

Kainos, Fade

Another day, I rise
I rise again
Captured by the mystery of the wind
I cannot see it
But I feel it through my hair
Funny how I'm moved
Bu what seems to not be here

And so I fight
For what I believe
And so I shout
I have seen the unseen

And it amazes me
To picture eternity
Thoughts of you consume and sweep me away
Revealing the freedom that will not
Fade, fade, fade

Soldiers are falling
They're falling to my right
But I run, I run anyway
A thousand thoughts, they enter into my brain
But only one, yeah only one remains

And so I fight
For what I believe
And so I shout
I have seen the unseen

And it amazes me
To picture eternity
Thoughts of you consume and sweep me away
Revealing the freedom that will not
Fade, fade, fade

And it amazes me
To picture eternity
Thoughts of you consume and sweep me away
Revealing the freedom that will not
Fade, fade, fade
That will not
