

Kainos, You And I

I want to be with You
No matter what we go through
For you are who I am
Though the walls they are so high
Together we will climb
For you are who I am

You cherished me
You molded me
To be who I am
And as I stand
You are who I am

If, if there must be pain
I know it's for your gain
For You are who I am
Your promises never change
And You're my everything
Yes You are who I am

You cherished me
You molded me
To be who I am

As I breathe I ask you tonight
Take my hand and take my life
No matter what time many bring
You and I we become me
And as I breathe I ask you tonight
Take my hand and take my life
No matter what time may bring
You and I become me

You cherished me
You molded me
To be who I am
And as I stand
You are who I am
