

Kaiser Chiefs, Jealousy

Of the seven deadly sins
Will heaven let you in
If you're never doing more than four
Gluttony and envy, lust is over-friendly
Pride will come before a fall

Nobody's ever fallen this hard before
You come along and messin' up my perfect score

Cos I don't do jealousy
But jealousy might do me
Gonna get you in the end
I pretend with all my energy
I don't do jealousy

There's things I wanna undo
I realise that I love you when I watch you loving someone else
I haven't managed yet though and now I wanna let go
Unfastening up my safety belts

Nobody's ever crashed this hard before
You come along and show me what I'm waiting for

Cos I don't do jealousy
But jealousy might do me
Gonna get you in the end
I pretend with all my energy
I don't do jealousy

Jealousy jealousy
Jealousy jealousy oh
Look what you've done to me
Look what you've done to me
Jealousy jealousy
Jealousy jealousy oh
Look what you've done to me
Look what you've done to me

Cos I don't do jealousy
But jealousy might do me
Gonna get you in the end
I pretend with all my energy
I don't do jealousy

I don't do jealousy
But jealousy might do me
Gonna get you in the end
I pretend with all my energy
I don't do jealousy
