

Kaize Adams, Captain Of My Soul

Like a ship
Tossed and driven
I'm out on a sea of confusion
But I am secure
In your presence
You are the captain of my soul

Give me ears to hear
Eyes to see
A mouth to speak
Lord lead me
As I share your word
To everyone

Lord let your will be done

You are the captain of my soul
Lord let your spirit take control
When the storms of life are raging
I know for sure
I'll reach that distant shore

Order my steps
Order my steps
Order my steps
Order my steps
