

Kaki King, Saving Days In A Frozen Head

Sunlight wakes me
Just to say let's go to sleep now
You work early
So for this hour I'll just look at you

There is nothing meant to happen, in this world
I don't wanna go, but I can't say I've had a good time doing anything
I don't wanna go, but I can't say I've had a good time

Dig beneath my skin, and find out
What there really is to me
