

Kalan Porter, My Sweet One

My sweet one theres a battle going on so strong
And I hope it doesnt take to long to get me back to you my one
My sweet one even superman cant save the sun
When your time has come
The day is done and were back to where we both come from

Somethings gotta give, somethings gotta break away
Make a better way to feel for you
Somethings gotta fly when you need to love
When you need your love, little lover

My sweet one all we are is just the light upon
A world a trillion miles away too long
To get me back to you my lady
Bittersweet one
