

Kalapana, (For You) I'd Chase A Rainbow

Once I thought she really needed me
All those silly games were really hurting, too.
For you I'd chase a rainbow
Last night when the moon was full
On the shore just me and you
And starry skies, gypsy eyes danced to the moon glow.
And when I think about you the blues come down on me.
Wish I could sleep without you
But sleep brings back the memories of falling in love.
Now she's gone my skies are gray
Left my heart in memory and made me blue
For you I'd chase a rainbow
