

Kaledon, God Says Yes

After ten years of darkness
The Knights of the reign said stop
After ten years of destructions
The King said "Fight" Knights search all around the hidden reign we don't find
With the sword and without fear
We call God
The God says yes, and with His power, we search and we reveal
The reign of Kaledon
At the gates of the hidden reign
We're ready to fight the undead troops
And without the shields we Fight as pure steel like the immortal, the Kaledon's braves we Fight against the undead
The hidden reign now is free
From the evil king
The God says yes, and with His power, we search and we reveal
The reign of Kaledon
God says yes !
The fate is right for us... the light's on Kaledon...
