

Kalle Baah, One Of These Days

One of these days you'll be led astray so immortalize your old memories and gold memories and spice them with rosemary Your grey existence, you don't want to jump no fence Patrolling around with a smile that's la-di-dab policeofficer, you ain't got no sense

Everyone look alike when we're in the raw so it shall be in the name of the law

Hear me when I say, hear me when I call, are you really sure, that you miss what you're looking for Life is just a moment between two eternities

And you diddle around, you're never homeward bound Grabbing cars and look out for control with a special patrol Oh, you trembling on solid ground

Everyone look alike when we're in the raw

Chorus...
