

Kamera, Hold On

I can tell it by your voice
It got much harder
Than I ever that it would
But you know as well as me I had no choice
I did the only thing I could

Hold on, Hold on

We can render it all to nothing
What a perfect day to throw it all away
You can say it's good for nothing
You can lie to yourself and you can walk away

There were words you wouldn't say
I knew those words right from the start
You would never ask me to stay
And now the distance tearing us apart

Hold on, Hold on

We can render it all to nothing
What a perfect day to throw it all away
You can say it's good for nothing
You can lie to yourself and you can walk away

I never said it'd be easy
But I'm convinced we've got our hands on something beautiful
Beautiful

We can render it all to nothing
What a perfect day to throw it all away
You can say it's good for nothing
You can lie to yourself and you can walk away
You can pretend it's all worth nothing
You can lie to us both and you can walk away
What a perfect day to throw it all away
What a perfect day to throw it all away
