

Kan Mikami, Cow And Long Hair

The letter starts:

"Miss Kaoru Yachigusa, how are you?"

The postcard starts:

"One-Eyed Grandad, how are you?"

Lots of warm hearts taken in

The meaning floating in blue sky, let it be, it's all the same

Staying close to the middle of the farm

Playing a game of solitaire

There's no difference

Between life and death

But wether I live or wether I die

It's all the same

See you again

See you again

However it goes, it will go

You start out on the phone:

"Is the water in Lake Biwa clear?"

Suddenly cut off, the line goes dead

Somebody told somebody to say something to somebody else

Whatever it is, it all means the same

The lady keeps on taking off from the airport

Even now she's waiting for you

There's no difference

Between life and death

But wether I live or wether I die

It's all the same

See you again

See you again

However it goes, it will go

Yuki-chan in kobe said to play this record

"The highway's jammed with traffic" says the radio

Somewhere the sound of someone's voice

Let alone the meaning, it's all the same

I really eat up Shinjuku and

The day you aren't trouble for me

Is the day that will never be

There's no difference

Between life and death

But wether I live or wether I die

It's all the same

I won't forget, I won't forget

Things won't change, things won't change

and

However it goes, it will go

Forever it goes, it will go