

Kan Mikami, Junko

When I climbed up this far
You went and said to me

While you were away
I managed to get this far

I don't believe it said Monsieur Akita
How did you ever get this far said the lady

Elder sister Junko, mama Junko
I can see you in an unknown land
Lying low in an unknown wilderness

Biwa minstrels have their own bachi!

There's a hill in the town where I was born

There's a neck on a big sheep

There's a big, open window

And there's a "moon" above my head
