

Kandi, Pants On Fire

[verse 1]

Eenie-meenie-miny-mo

Caught yo' ass right by your toe

Hanging out with some h-o

Thought I wouldn't know

Well it looked to me like you were free

You told me that you'd be busy

I'm not the one to wait around

So this is how it all went down

You were leaving at 12 o'clock

I was leaving at 12:02 and that ain't cool

But I was with some other dude

So I dipped when I saw you

You were leaving our favorite spot, baby

Or so it was I thought, baby it's crazy

But who's to blame when

Game recognized game

[chorus]

You said that you were at your boy's house

Pants on fire - liar, liar

I said that I was sleep but I lied

Pants on fire - liar, liar

You said that you were working all night

Pants on fire - liar, liar

I said that I never called that guy

Pants on fire - liar, liar

[verse 2]

Nanny-Boo-Boo

You just mad cause I caught you

Thought I was some type of fool

So I did what I had to do, and I don't know how but you forgot
When you're out in the club &quot;Don't Think I'm Not&quot;;
You're not the only one getting hot
Yeah I'm blowin' up your spot
You were leaving at 12 o' clock
I was leaving at 12:02 when I saw you
But how could you have an attitude
When you do the same thing I do
My intentions were to stop baby
Before it went too far baby it's crazy
But who's to blame when
Game recognizes game

[repeat chorus]

[bridge]

We said
We lied
Who's wrong
Who's right

[repeat chorus]
