

Kandi, What I'm Gon' Do To You

[chorus]

Heard you in the booty club

Tryin' to get new love

I wanted to scream and shout

But I went home

Just picked up the phone

Cleared your bank account out

It's gonna be such a shame

What I'm gonna do to you

Revenge is a must

When my heart you crush

You know I'm goin' burn yo' house to dust

Cause a girl really gets so serious

When you really make a girl so furious

It's such a shame

What I'm gonna do to you

[verse 1]

This is the last time

That I'm goin' let you get away

With all these games that you're playing with me

Cause I kept seeing the signs

But I ignored them anyway

I once was a blind but now I see

Cause when you came home last night

You just wasn't smelling right

And that look in your eyes

Is telling me what is going on

What the hell is that smell

Could it be someone else

[repeat chorus]

[verse 2]

I'm getting so tired

Of you always coming in late

With the scent of some female

On your face

It's only so much I can take

And you know, homeless

Just might be your fate

If you keep pushing the the limit with me

Cause when you came home last night

You just wasn't smelling right

And that look in your eyes

Is telling me what is going on

What the hell is that smell

Could it be someone else

[repeat chorus]
