

Kangta, Scandal (english Version)

Y2J Yoo Young Jin, that's the way
We came straight game wit it, straight off the chain wit it,
Look, but can't touch, we the illest true pimps of it.
Collaboration locked with military fusion,
Takin' over da globe without any hesitation,
Envision--total domination.
Taking circus out with sniper scope precision.
So just back up, back up, yo way up, way up,
Or you'll get yourself smacked up! Like Tupac, we hit 'em up!
Too cold to hold, yo, we too hot to handle,
Ladies, are you ready? 'Bout to hit ya wit dis scandal!
Clock strikes, it's twelve o' clock. Bodies movin', dance flo's hot
You shake it so dangerous. Girl, you're so dangerous
Looked straight into your eyes. Desire's burning up my mind
(It's you) You know want to, don't be shy, oh girl!
Girl, don't try to stop this flow. Back up on it, nice and slow
The stage is set so just let go... Baby, girl don't say no
Move yo body! Don't think about no one else!
Groove to the music, let the rhythm take control.
Rock that body! You know how we party~ yeah!

I know what I know, what I know I show,
By the time I finish, you'll be screaming for more
Time for us to show everybody what's up

Don't try to step. Pistol whipped is how you'll end flippin the script I just done, done it again
