

Kanye West, TIME MOVING SLOW

You were the only thing that felt like home
How I thought I had it all?
Going through the messages that's stored on my phone
Read questions like
I'm not alone

We was gone off that old potion, hit that slow motion, what you got?
Going rogue, someone left the stove open, we too hot
It was double R, we was Range Rovin' with the rocky Rollie, Rolls-Royce
Ruff Ryder anthem just had dropped, hrr

Reach for the popcorn, oops, that's my cock, hrr
Got my heart broke, I liked that bitch a lot, huh (Time)
Time moving slow, I ain't trippin', though
I thought you had to know

Time moving slow
I just thought you had to know
Time moving slow

You were the only thing that felt like home
I thought I had it all
Going through the messages that's stored on my phone
Read questions like
I'm not alone
You were the only thing that felt like—

Time moving slow (Time moving slow)

I can't believe in you niggas, I see through you niggas
Exceeded the limits, took over my story and rewrote the endin', I did
Had to show up and deliver that shit
Had the yacht out on the ocean, I did
Go ahead, cry me a river, you bitch
You tried to bring me to my lowest, I still brought the vision
I see through the blinds
When everyone is, it's a sign of the times
Niggas been fallin' behind
I got some images stuck in my mind
I gotta hit 'em, the perfectest time
We finna get it this time
We goin' bigger this time
Feelin' like Jig' in his prime

Time moving slow
I thought you had to know
Time moving slow
I thought you had to know
Time moving slow
Enjoy the time moving slow, oh yeah
