

Kapatid, Fade Away

Was it something that i said to you that didn't turn out right?
Was it something that i did gave up the vibe?
Try to listen to yourself and then you'll see my side,
Now tell me it ain't about the fuckin pride
I say we fade away.
Why can't we look each other eye to eye?
Complacency already passed by.
The good and bad times we've been through.
Why can't we drop this shit and start the day anew?
I say we fade away...

Time and again we stood together side by side
I remember the time when you saved me when i dropped from high
But why do we tear each other limb by limb
But then again you're totally out of my sight.
Was it something that i said didn't turn out right?
Was it something that i did gave up the vibe?
Was it something that i said didn't turn out right?
Maybe something that i said gave up the vibe...
Fade away...
