

Karate High School, Another Day At The Office

The robots march in line to get to work
Because it's almost punch-in time.
We've traded in our lives for deadlines only met overtime.
And for each hour they own us we work towards our bonus.
We've been following the script for so long we forgot who we are.
Just another day nothing ever changes.
How did my life become 9 to 5?
We've been following the script for so long we forgot who we are.
We can only work this shift for so long.
Let's shake hands and talk statistics
as we try our best to act pretentious.
I still smile everyday and tell myself that life was meant to be this way.
But inside I'm starving for something to real.
We've been following the script for so long we forgot who we are.
But inside I'm starving for something real
Just another day nothing ever changes.
How did my life become 9 to 5?
We've been following the script for so long we forgot who we are.
We can only work this shift for so long.
It comes down to:
Work. Eat. Sleep. Repeat.
Work. Eat. Sleep. Repeat.
Repeat...
Just another day nothing ever changes.
How did my life become 9 to 5?
We've been following the script for so long we forgot who we are.
We can only work this shift for so long.
Work. Eat. Sleep. Repeat.
