

Karate High School, Zombies Everywhere

They're storming every town
They're gonna burn every building down
They're gonna make all your friends look just like them,
And if you haven't noticed yet,
We're surrounded by zombies everywhere
They're coming for your brains,
And it's too late to change
I saw you die that day
We put you in the ground,
But somehow now you're awake
My phone rings, and it's my mom
She says, "Do you know what's going on?"
Something's killing every boy and girl,
It's the end of the world
There's zombies everywhere
I see them feeding on skin, all chewing a certain way
They eat the same
They shove it all in
I run to my car, I'm on my own
I'm driving across America all alone,
But my supplies are running low, and I can't go home
There's zombies everywhere
If you're listening to this, then it's already too late
We tried our best, but we could not escape
We were surrounded, without a way outside
And without warning, they pushed their way inside
I'm writing you a letter from deep inside this hell
And hopefully, it will help you save yourself
