

Karen Carpenter, If I Had You

I wouldn't have the tv in the bedroom
I wouldn't have this teardrop in my eye
I wouldn't need the radio to be my lullaby if I had you, if I had you

I wouldn't need the sun to light my morning wouldn't need your love to light my night I'd never for a second keep our love from burning bright if I had you in my life

(chorus)
If I had you again
I'd never be the fool I've been
If I had you again
I'd never let the loving end
If I had you again
I'd show you baby you're the only one

So say that you believe in second chances say you'll let me be with you tonight
If you let me in I'll show you just how love could be so right
If I had you in my life

chorus to fade
