

Kari Amirian, Fightback

You have to be successful
Must outperform the rest
Have brains like a rocket scientist
You've got to be the best
You must be fit and perfect
Got looks like a TV star
Have a thousand friends on facebook
And drive a fancy car

I don't subscribe to this concept
Declare a war to this plan
Refrain from tweaking in my mindset
I'll fightback

Where is my freedom?
Where did we lose ourselves?
Is this all we want?
I think we go wrong way

Be free

Sound of desperate voices
And slamming of the door
Another bleeding hearts

Drumbeat of evil army
Praises the victory
Over the heavenly call

No man can serve two masters
I choose heart over mind
We'll win
If we begin to cluster
And raise hands

I proclaim freedom
Where did we lose ourselves?
Is this all we want?
I think we go wrong way

Where is my freedom?
Where did we lose ourselves?
Is this all we want?
I think we go wrong way

Be free

Freedom of being humble
Freedom of making choice
My right to earn stumble
Stand up and raise my voice
Freedom from doubt and anger
Complained and jealousy
Freedom from all invaders
Freedom of being me
