

Kari Amirian, Paint The Sky

Rainbows and northern lights
I made to awe you
Mountains and waterfalls
To elevate your scope
I gave you a pair of eyes
So you could see the wonders
And walk so full of life
Power and hope

Paint the sky
A shade you like
It's all for you

Serpents you'll walk upon
Will change into flowers
Lonely and feeble will
Step to the light
Your dance
Will uplift the angels
Warrior of the heart

Go paint the sky
It's all for you
