

Karine Polwart, Daisy

Hey Daisy darling
Dont spread your arms so wide
Why dont you keep a little something inside?
I know you think that hands are made for pulling us through
But there are people in this world who dont think like you do

Hey Daisy darling
Dont give them all you can
Why dont you keep a few more cards in your hand?
I know youll only say a thing you believe to be true
But there are people in this world who dont think like you do

They dont think like you do
And some dont think at all

Hey Daisy darling
Dont take it all as read
Why dont you ask a few more questions instead?
I know you think that everyone should be paid what theyre due
But there are people in this world who dont think like you do

They dont think like you do
And some dont think at all
