

Karkadan, Eternal Black Reflections

Eternal blackness in the sky
Shining for murder
Air tasting of blood and decay
Of death

The empire is rising

White shadows fall apart
Fading into darkness

Time turns to eternity
Secrets of death force their way up from the deep

The unholy hordes leave the abyss for the final battle.

The might of insanity
Reaches out for humanity
To kill

The mirror reflecting the minds of men
Shows eternal wastelands

Hope is vanishing for sheer terror
That is to come

Black eternally
