

Karkadan, My Ablaze

A thing that should be secret
Saved by the hands of death
Calling souls and demons
By using your last breath
Ablaze the light with darkness

Powers will turn upon
But they may revenge
And if your cast should ever fail
Break not will nor mercy
Let the sword rest for eternity

For eternity

Nevertheless you cannot escape
'Cause it's war against time
Don't worry about your flesh
But take care of your spirit
Take care
