

Karmin, Blame It On My Heart

Too caught up in the moment, fantasy is gone
Came down from the high
Stare me down with the tension of a 1000 daggers
Are you surprised?

Here comes the ache, too much to take
You got to let it go, let it go
Give me a break, it's my mistake
Darling, I should've known
I should've known

I couldn't help it, sorry I'm selfish
But blame it on my heart
Blame it on the beating
No alibi, I had to try, baby
Blame it on my heart
Blame it on my beating heart

Trust I wanted to tell you
No, I never meant for you to be hurt
Tongue tied up my escape plan
Now I got a million bridges to burn

[Here comes the ache, too much to take
You got to let it go, let it go
Give me a break, it's my mistake
Darling, I should've known
I should've known

I couldn't help it, sorry I'm selfish
But blame it on my heart
Blame it on the beating
No alibi, I had to try, baby
Blame it on my heart
Blame it on my beating heart

Blame it on the feeling
Blame it, blame it, blame it
I can't reverse it
Blame it on the beating
Blame it, blame it
All the things I said
