

Karolina Lyndo, Runnin' (feat. Istwendau)

Another day doesn't seem alive
I'm sailing away
Honey, honey
There's a fight everyday

I was starting to feel,
Like nine to five
Then I saw you
Won't you comfort me tonight?

Running, time is runnin'
Tell me everything's alright
Running, runnin'
I wanna be real tonight

Take me far away
I wanna see, I wanna see, I wanna see your face
There's one thing for me to say - stay, stay!
One day we'll be just a trace

Running, time is runnin'
Tell me everything's alright
Running, runnin'
I wanna be real tonight
