

KASAI, SALVAGES

if love is all that matters why do we collide and still not make any strides even though our hopes are shattered you cannot say that I haven't tried true beauty now is sinking it's happening before our eyes all that remains in wishful thinking that we survive somewhat every act has a reaction everything /2x

has a cause
I am in the middle of distractions trying to elevate my soul

desert, forest, water
water forest desert
elevate my soul
