

Kashmir, Gloom

Something sweet in your nose Tells you where to go Seems as if you're never on your own So you sneak just to see what it is it's the heat, or maybe its just a kiss.

i may not be concerned
but i care, if she is there to die for you
would she die for you
be there in your gloom
when you're calling her name
untill the end
'till the end of the noon
is she crying your gloom
or does she sink with the day.

good? is it good?
are you understood?
do you wear the shoes you wore before?
do you sleep with your thumb in your mouth? - anymore? did you protect your core?

and i may not be concerned
oh, to die for you
will she die for you?
be there in you're gloom
when you're calling her name
untill the end
or does she sink with the day.

untill the end
or does she sink with the day.
