

Kashmir, Kalifornia

Kalifornia, have you gone wild?
I'm sifting through your dark miles reaching out for you in the headlight's glare but you're way too devious to be aware

Restless, restless
windswept road
take me someplace
unfold

Kalifornia, in a bleak road song old Nick warned me
against the storm
but I'm your slipstream you're my trail
drive wild with me
full sails

Restless, restless
windswept road

sometime
get there sometime
