

Kashmir, Star In My Movie sit with me I want to know your name picture you inside my golden frame I do deep intellectual films I admit containing certain thrills you may think that I'm just an ordinary boy but, behind my fly I am swollen...

happy that you made it here today tempting looks keep leading me astray, girl now you see that I was never ordinary, girl 'cuz behind this lens was a genius hey sugar will you star in my movie?

fit the 'tart part' well hey sugar will you show your pussy?!?

you are fast asleep, I scan your inner eyelids crawl inside your mouth to check your throat depths I investigate your juicy 'genitals' when you're coming back I'll be on your back!
