

Kasia Chałdaś, Boy

Boy It was so good before
Or maybe not
How do we even no
Oh boy
It couldn't work again
What can I say
You have missed Your chance

Are we gonna end this way
Or do you want to stay

Maybe loving somebody else
Will make you realize how much I loved you
Maybe your love was one of the many reasons
Why I love myself
But maybe loving somebody else
Will make you realize how much I loved you
Maybe your love was one of the many reasons
Why I love myself
Love myself for you

Boy oh baby now I'm free
And you'll regret
How you treated me

There is someone in this world
Who's showing me my worth

Maybe it was your fault
Maybe you didn't know
Baby I found a boy
But it was your fault
And you knew it all
Baby I found a boy
Hi gives me so much more

Maybe loving somebody else
Will make you realize how much I loved you
Maybe your love was one of the many reasons
Why I love myself
But maybe loving somebody else
Will make you realize how much I loved you
Maybe your love was one of the many reasons
I put myself
I put myself first

Maybe loving somebody else
Will make you realize how much I love you
Maybe your love was one of the many reasons
Why I love myself
Love myself for you
Why I love myself
Love myself foru you
So I love myself
I love myself for you
