

Kasia Kowalska, Heart Of Green

Anytime you want
Anytime you feel this way
You can show me the way to you

Build the bridge
Over the chasm of suspense
Light the candle in this labyrinth
Of hope for the only chance
Don't make me wait
I've got to know
Oh is it me you're living for
'Cause I want to give you
My heart of green

Anytime you want
Anytime you feel this way
Like you're flying high above
To the heart of the hearts
You'll find someday
That you're showing me
The way to you
